Arsenal and Tottenham stars support Scott Banks Memorial Fund

Signed shirts from Kolo Toure and Ledley King

Arsenal Star Kolo Toure and Tottenham Hotspur star Ledley King very kindly signed shirts to be auctioned on e-bay with all proceeds going to the Scott Banks Memorial Fund.

The pair signed the shirts "In memory of Scott Banks" and included photo's of themselves with the shirts to prove the items are genuine. They will be available to bid on from next week on Scott's e-bay shop. Each shirt will also come with a framed photo of the player with the signed shirt (as seen below).

A massive thank you Matt Miller Snr and Matt Miller Jnr of the London Proshop for arranging for these items to be signed
